Bio of Stephanie C. Harper

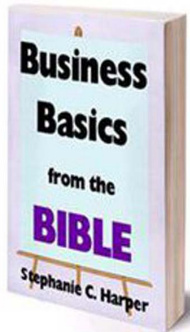

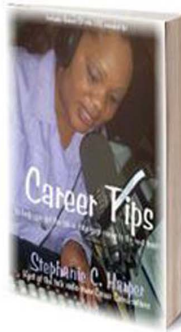

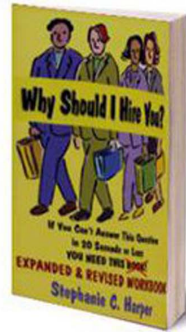

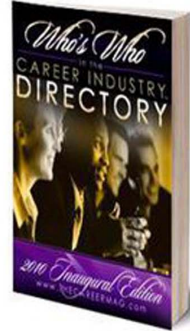

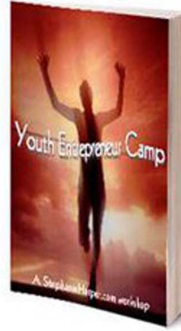

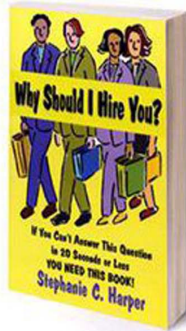

Affectionately called the “Queen of Careers”, Stephanie C. Harper is a respected subject matter expert in the career services field. A certified human resources professional with over 20 years experience working “in the trenches of Corporate human resources”, Stephanie has earned industry certifications as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR), Certified Compensation Professional (CCP) and Certified Human Resources Manager (CHRM). A graduate of MTI Western Business College and Columbia Southern University, Stephanie holds professional memberships with several organizations, is an Executive Board Member for Influential Women About Biz, Board Member for Youth United International and volunteers as a mentor for Former Atlanta Mayor Shirley Franklin’s Youth Career Program.

Stephanie made her “Career Minute” radio debut to 2.5 million listeners worldwide on SGN The Light and soon became the Employment Expert for the Reggie Gay Gospel Show (91.9 FM Atlanta). Leaving an indelible mark, Stephanie’s expertise has been sought by numerous organizations such as Association of Job Search Trainers, Federal Aviation Administration, Department of Labor and Women for Hire (Good Morning America Contributor) to name a few. Quoted in publications such as the Wall Street Journal, Atlanta Journal Constitution, Denver Post and Greater Diversity News. As she continues to make global impact, her commitment to the industry is evidenced by her contributions as an author, speaker, radio host and career expert who continuously couples her profession with her passion to enrich the careers of others. Gifted with a unique Careers and Christ message, Stephanie also provides faith-based career education and empowerment workshops.

Founder and Publisher of CAREER Magazine, Stephanie is also author of best-selling books, Why Should I Hire You? and A Kingdom Built Career (foreword by Bishop Noel Jones) which have become her two most request workshops. Also penning Career Tips, Business Basics from the Bible, Books Are A Business and the Youth Entrepreneur Camp manual, she co-authored Life Manual for the 21st Century Woman, Smart Start to Business, Jump Start to Business, and she also writes career articles and columns for numerous publications including LIVE magazine, WOW Magazine, Speak Life, Streaming Faith, The Success Academy, and Beauty and Lace (an Australian publication).

CEO of STEP Enterprises, Inc. Stephanie provides career coaching to individuals and human resources consulting to small businesses who may not need an entire human resources department, but certainly need HR EXPERTISE! With much to her credit, her biggest accomplishments include being the wife of her high school sweetheart and mother of two daughters.
